Living the Legacy in the D:
A Tribute to the Martin Luther King Jr. National Memorial

Date: June 22 – Jul 20, 2012
Time: Monday - Saturday, 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

In partnership with the Martin Luther King Jr. National Memorial Foundation, the University of Michigan Detroit Center is proud to host, Living the Legacy in the D: A Tribute to the Martin Luther King Jr. National Memorial.

Curated by graduate student Jina B. Kim, an intern of the U-M Arts of Citizenship program, the exhibition runs from June 22 – July 20, with free admission and parking for all attendees.

Celebrating the legacy of Martin Luther King Jr., Living the Legacy in the D draws inspiration from Dr. King’s historical connections to Detroit and the national memorial built in his honor. The exhibition transports the sights and sounds of the National Mall to the City of Detroit; recreating the Washington, D.C. experience through stunning displays, scale models and inspirational photographs. The exhibition offers visitors a rare and exciting glimpse of this powerful monument and highlights Dr. King’s presence in local history.
